ROSEMONT COLLEGE EASES TRANSFER PROCESS FOR KATHARINE GIBBS STUDENTS

Rosemont, PA– Rosemont College forged an agreement to facilitate the transfer of Katharine Gibbs students who want to complete their bachelor’s degree. Women and men who earn their associate’s degree at Gibbs can choose from an array of degree options, both in Rosemont’s traditional Undergraduate Women’s College and in the accelerated format School of Professional Studies. The transfer process is made as seamless as possible for all applicants through careful advising, small class size, and personalized attention from dedicated admissions staff.

“Rosemont College is extremely delighted to have this articulation agreement in place,” said Debra G. Klinman, Ph.D., Vice President for Academic Affairs. “Rosemont understands the tremendous economic and career benefits of earning a bachelor’s degree, and we’re very proud of the success achieved by our transfer students from local two-year colleges.”
