INCARNATION AS WORLDVIEW: A Panel Lecture and Conversation with the Society of the Holy Child Jesus and the Mission Office of Rosemont College

Rosemont, PA-Rosemont College and its founding order, the Society of the Holy Child Jesus (SHCJ), will host a panel lecture and conversation titled, Incarnation as Worldview on Wednesday, October 10, 2007 at 6:30 p.m. in McShain Performing Arts Center on Rosemont’s Main Line campus. The event is free and open to the public.

The lecture will explore the meaning of incarnation from the perspective of Catholic Christianity, and its manifestation in the spiritually and mission of a group of Catholic Sisters whose community spirit is grounded in the incarnation. First presented in 2006 at the Global Congress on World’s Religions After September 11, Incarnation as Worldview was most recently presented in New York in March. The October lecture will be the first presentation in the greater Philadelphia area.
